To register for a class or camp, contact Brad Boston at (304) 529-2701, Ext. 311. You can also register online or get the registration form in either .pdf or Word \(.doc\) format. Camp enrollment must be completed one week prior to camp beginning.

The Museum will not offer pre or post-camp hours. Campers need to bring their own lunches, drinks, and snacks. Limited spaces are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. NO refunds for cancellations. Scholarships are available; please call to inquire.

Art Camp

Week I: July 6-10, 2015, 9 am – 3 pm

Week II: July 13-17, 2015, 9 am – 3 pm

Grades: K-5

Cost: $150 members | $180 non-members per week

Children's imaginations will soar and self-expression will abound during art camp. Under the direction of qualified and experienced teachers, campers will be inspired and challenged with their art making. Painting, drawing, clay and more will enlighten hearts and spark creativity. Campers will be divided into age appropriate groups: K-1, 2-3, 4-5 grades completed.

Elementary Art Camp Week One Grades K-1 is full

Middle School/High School Clay Workshop

Dates: June 15-19 and June 22-26, 2015 (two weeks, must attend both weeks), 9 am – 3 pm

Grades: 6-12

Cost: $150 members | $180 non-members per week

Let's get messy! During this workshop participants will get creative using their imaginations, centuries-old techniques, and MUD!!! Students will incorporate a wide variety of techniques including hand-building, wheel throwing, surface design and firing techniques. By using these methods participants will take an exciting journey that will unfold personal interpretations of clay through sculpture, jewelry, functional forms and more.

Nature Camp

Dates: July 20-24, 2015, 9 am – 3 pm

Grades: 3-6

Cost: $150 members | $180 non-members

Let your child's curiosity for nature and the environment blossom. Morning activities will include exploration of the Museum's trails and creeks to observe the plants and animals native to this region. During the afternoon, campers will enjoy varieties of classroom activities that will encourage a deeper understanding of the natural world.

S.T.E.A.M. Camp

Dates: July 27-31, 2015, 9 am – 3 pm

Grades: 3-6

Cost: $150 members | $180 non-members

Through project-based learning, campers will explore Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math for deeper learning experiences. Time will be spent making and creating in the studios, experimenting and exploring in HMA's plant conservatory, and designing and constructing a robot with the help of the June Harless Center.

Pitter Patter Art

Must be accompanied by parent or caregiver

Dates: July 6-10, 2015, 9 – 10:15 am

Ages: 18 months-3 years

Cost: $40 members | $50 non-members

Prepare yourselves for some fun! Through tactile experiences and sensory art materials, kids (and adults) will explore shape, texture, line, and color together.

Young Explorers (unaccompanied by parent or caregiver)

Unaccompanied by parent or caregiver

Dates: July 13-17, 2015, 9 am – Noon

Ages: 4 years-Pre-K

Cost: $70 members | $90 non-members

HMA's new and exciting camp promises to be fun. Creativity and self-expression will abound as campers explore art making, gallery games and trail walks.

Current Exhibits at Huntington Museum of Art

Exhibit Name	Date on Show	Presented By:	Description
Designed with a Twist	February 2 nd - November 22 nd , 2015	This exhibit is presented with financial assistance from the West Virginia Division of Culture and History, and the National Endowment for the Arts, with approval from the West Virginia Commission on the Arts.	One design technique involves a twist of hot glass, and this twist can range from a simple turn of the wrist as seen in Fritz Dreisbach's Goblet from 1976, to a complicated manipulation of a bubble inside the stem as seen in the "air twist," or the spiraling action of colored enamel rods in the stem of a glass as seen in the "cotton twist."
Macy's Presents www.Paper (Women working with paper)	February 28 th - June 14 th , 2015	This exhibit is presented by Macy's. Additional financial support for this exhibit is provided by the West Virginia Division of Culture and History, and the National Endowment for the Arts, with approval from the West Virginia Commission on the Arts.	This exhibit will examine works by women artists who use the medium of paper to explore their world. The exhibit will include drawing, pastel, prints, photography, watercolor, hand-made paper, molded paper pulp, and a mixed media quilt. The exhibit will include approximately 50 works by artists
Created Between the Wars: American Art -1861-1945	March 14 th - September 13 th , 2015	It is generously sponsored by many people who it honors and will always remember. See work for those it honors. On view will be a number of works created as part of the war efforts, but most will be non-war related artworks that portray the range of artistic styles and developments from reconstruction and the "Golden Age," the romanticizing of the American West, the American expatriates and artistic study abroad in the late 19th century, and up through early American modernism, the Depression era, regionalism, and the beginnings of Abstract Expressionism in the early-to-mid-20th century.	This exhibit will tap into the Museum's rich collection of American paintings, drawings, sculpture, prints, decorative arts, and historic firearms to explore artworks created between the first years of the American Civil War up through the end of World War II.
Collection Wisdom: Staff Selects	March 21 st - July 12 th , 2015	Sustaining Sponsors, In Support of HMA Staff	Offers a variety of artistic styles and media chosen by HMA staff members. Works on view will include Love Tokens by Jules Breton (French, 1827-1906), selected by HMA Registrar Linda Sanns who has been with the Museum for 34 years! Come and see what has been selected, and why, and think about your favorite work!
Water Gropius Master Artist Series Presents: Tula Telfair	April 25 th - July 19 th , 2015	The Walter Gropius Master Artist Series is funded through the generosity of the Estate of Roxanna Y. Booth	Telfair paints monumental landscapes and epic-scale vistas that are simultaneously awe-inspiring and intimate. She combines stillness with motion, solitude with universality and definition with suggestion in her

			bold and quiet works. An extension of the progression of landscape from the backdrops of the Renaissance through the travelogues of the 19th century and beyond, Telfair's paintings are fully contemporary in their inspiration and execution.

MU Summer Science Adventures

For our second year, the Marshall University College of Science is hosting The Summer Science Adventure camps Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, & Math, full STEAM ahead with idea that can learning can be so fun. All camps are hands-on with science, include creativity and art, and we sneak math in at every opportunity (and the kids don't even notice it). With camps spanning many fields such as forensic science, microscopy, anatomy, microbiology, and computer programming, your child will explore through both hands-on and activity based learning. The camps offer the opportunity for your child to enrich their science education and see what real science is all about. Our camps are staffed with MU professors, graduate students and local professionals to ensure your child is being taught by people whose careers are science based. Camps range from 2:6-2:20 staff-camper ratio permitting very individualized instruction. These camps will give your child an opportunity to explore careers in the sciences and, since these camps are in Marshall University laboratories, it's a great peak to see what college has to offer! Camps are available for grades K-12. Details can be found at www.ssawv.com.
